

RACCONTAMI UNA STORIA

STORYTELLING WORKSHOP – “Storytelling in Italian”

All Italian speaking parents/carers are welcome
At Cambridge Central Library, Lion Yard, Cambridge

The workshop is aimed at Italian speaking parents and carers who wish to support their children's competence of the language through storytelling.

Run by a professional storyteller, Mariangela Agostini, the workshop will develop storytelling skills by focusing on how to read (voice, mime, body language) and what to read (how to choose children's books and bibliography). The workshop is held in Italian.

Workshop sessions

> Saturday 7th May, 2011 - exclusively for parents/carers - 10.30am to 12.45pm.

> Sunday 8th May, 2011 -
A storytelling for children and parents 12.15pm to 1.15pm

Booking and fees

> Saturday 7th May Workshop -
£12.00 per person, if booked before 30th April.
£15.00 per person, if booked after 30th April.

> Sunday 8th May
Storytelling for children & parents
£2.00 per family.

Fees are to support book and material costs.
CIC is a non-profit association

For more information

Cambridge Italian Club (CIC)
www.cambridgeitalianclub.co.uk cambridgeitalianclub@yahoo.it

In partnership with Central Library, Cambridge.

